Rosa H. and Addie were equal favorites in the betting for the fourth race, with 12 to 5 against their chances. Our Mazzie was backed down from 6 to 1 until 5 to 2 was the best price obtainable when the horses were called to the post. A good start was made, with the horses all in their stride. Our Maggle had the foot of the fleid, however, and quickly opened a gap of several lengths. She held her advantage to the finish, whining cased up by her jockey by two lengths Rosa H. was second throughout, finishing a neck in front of Cottonade who was third.

The lifth race was a puzzle for the bettors to solve. Mr. Sasa, Marguerite, Marshall and Joeian were all backed for large amounts, although Marguerite carried the most money. After a short delay the starter caught the horses well together and sent them on their journey. Laurel made the running until within a sixteenth of a mile from the finish, when she had enough, as W. B. and Mr. Sass closed with her, and in a driving finish, Mr. Sass won by a neck from W. B., who was the same distance in front of Laurel.

Another guessing affair ended the day's sport. Twelve beaten horses faced the starter in the sixth race. If was some time before the crowd decided on a favorite but a "large and julcy" tip that was quickly selxed upon by the bettors soon placed Stalle W. In that place at odds of 3 to 1 against her chances. Milan, Son Malheur, Leigh and Erneson were well played. After some delay, a good start was made, with the field in close order. There was more or less josting down the backstretch, but Milan soon ended the agony by taking the lead and winning rather easily by two lengths from Best Brand, with Harry Hinkson third.
